

THE UNION DISCREDITS THE IDEA THAT KNOW NOTHINGISM IS WAR ON ABOLITIONISM.
The Union discredits the idea that Know Nothingism is war on Abolitionism, saying: "If the reader will cast his eye over the list of Know Nothings in the different States, he will find that those who are notorious as leaders are also notorious as abolitionists. With inconsiderable exceptions. Every member of Congress elected by the Know Nothings, exclusive of some anti-Nebraska Democrats, is also pledged to the Abolition plan of admitting no more slave States—a repeal of the Missouri Compromise line. It is so in Maine, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, and Wisconsin. Even in New York, where Seaward took Congress, against the Know Nothings, the Know Nothings have not elected a single national man to Congress, but the reverse. To strengthen this array of facts, it is only necessary to state that the leaders of this order are all notorious for their hostility to the South. How many of these now in session at Cincinnati, apart from a few Southern Whigs, who are always ready to unite with a faction to put down the Democratic party, are the allies of the Know Nothings? Take the new Mayor of Philadelphia, who is probably the ablest and most powerful enemy of southern men in the State of Pennsylvania; take the new Governor of Massachusetts, Mr. Gardner, who unfurled the flag of Know Nothingism and Abolitionism at the same time; take the New York Herald's national party. The organization which is to protect the rights of the States based upon the idea of assailing the rights of the citizen!"

The Intelligencer jokes over the condition of the Harmonious as exemplified by the recent elections, and thinks it funny that it should be expected by some veridical gentlemen to cry over the present condition of parties. The editor holds that there are but two ways in which "the Democracy" can be again re-installed into a majority. First, by reuniting with itself its fragments which have gone off higher and yon; and next by the action of what is left of the Whig party in joining what is left of "the Democracy." Our neighbor is clearly of opinion that the Union might as well whistle Psalms to dead horses, as labor to bring about either of these ends.

THANKSGIVING.
Whatever may be thought of the good taste of substituting the northern custom of observing a "Thanksgiving Day" set apart by our political rulers as a practical substitute for the venerable "Christmas Day," hallowed as the anniversary of the birth of the Redeemer of men, since the earliest days of Christianity, and (until the innovation of "Thanksgiving") observed throughout Christendom as the day of all others in the year to be dedicated to the duty of returning heartfelt thanks to the Author of all Good Gifts for his many blessings vouchsafed to erring humanity—whatever may be thought, we write, of the good taste and propriety of this change, (for which we confess little fancy indeed,) now that our rulers have determined that Thanksgiving day be kept here, this season, it is to be hoped that all will have a joyous time of it. All the churches will be open in the morning, and all the ministers of Washington will try to out-do each other in preaching sermons designed to fix the hearts and minds of all on the fact that we live, move and have our being only under Divine Providence, to whom we owe all, absolutely all, for every blessing each one of us has enjoyed through life. Not a sparrow falleth to the ground without his knowledge, and no work of man prospers but through his aid. He helps those who help themselves, or the philosophy of success in life is a mistake; while in his inscrutable wisdom, he chastens man by defeating the consummation of his worldly ends. No wise person can reflect on the history of life, animal and vegetable, as he knows it, without standing in awe of that great All Wise and Benevolent Providence who holds us all in the hollow of his hand. Nor does there live a sensible man who is not assured in his own heart that the happiness—the peace of mind which passeth all understanding—that is the lot of him who not only believes in, but conscientiously lives up to the standard for man's conduct laid down in the New Testament, is enabled best to enjoy all the true blessings that are within the reach of all. We make these reflections because we know well that there are multitudes in this land of churches—men, many of them scrupulously careful not to offend what they deem to be the religious prejudices of their neighbors—who do not reflect twice in a twelvemonth upon the weight of their obligations to Providence. A paragraph or two, in a secular journal like ours, upon the subject, will be more apt to reach their mind's eye than all the sermons preached and published from Canada to the shores that border the Pacific. These people, to us, are the worst kind of "heathen," and we conjure them to devote an hour to-morrow to listening to words explaining and enforcing their real obligations for all they have, enjoy and are. Afterwards, they may eat, drink, and be merry, giving thanks in an animal way, as it were. The turkeys will suffer on such an occasion, as in duty bound. As, where turkeys are concerned, all Yankee creation on Thanksgiving day is apparently bound to forget the obligation to do unto others as they would be done by.

No business will be done to-morrow in Washington. We trust that the holiday may be misused as little as possible. Of course, the quantity of execrable rum punished will be much greater than usual in twenty-four hours, for this is always the case on a holiday of the kind. Our hope is that the occasion will not be decorated by scenes in the street going to show that we have many among us who are prone to use such an occasion for the gratification of the bad elements in man's nature. The Star will not appear to-morrow.

Many clergy men have been elected to the Legislature of Massachusetts, the Methodists, according to the Boston Transcript, taking the lead. Several Universalists and some Congregationalists have also been elected.—Baltimore American.

Now look out for disagreements, bickerings, and contentions. When ministers, who have cried out: "We are as me if I preach not the gospel of Christ," desert the Gospel banner, enter the political arena and mix in the rough and tumble fight of partisans, religion suffers, and the people lose all respect for the clerical garb. It is the duty of the true ministry to denounce this corruption in the church, to cry aloud and spare not, until their delinquent brethren come back to the fold from whence they have strayed, and stop crying "Good Lord and good Devil" in the same breath. When ministers become worldlings, infidelity prospers.

The experiment of running locomotive engines with Anthracite coal has been very successful at Boston.

WASHINGTON NEWS AND GOSSIP.
The Governorship of Utah.—Great curiosity exists to learn who is to succeed Brigham Young, as Governor of Utah. We are asked on all sides to unravel the mystery, and are fairly to reply that the task is past our abilities. The wily old political foxes who usually seek Governorships of United States Territories, all appear to know too much to long to venture into that position, baited as it is merely with the annual salary. The chances are ten to one that the expense of this Governorship will at least equal every dollar paid by the Government to the incumbent; while the idea that any but a Mormon may fill either Senatorship from there when the territory becomes a State, is not to be dreamed of. It seems to be well understood that from the moment that a new Governor arrives out, trouble between the United States authorities and those of the local Government—of the Church—will commence; to make for the former a storm of unpopularity that can hardly fail greatly to endanger the reputation of whoever may be the Governor for the time being. Hard labor, great danger of a loss of position, and not a dollar of profit being, therefore, the reward in prospective for whoever the appointee may be, of course the office is not sought as a prize. This fact generates in our mind the idea that the new incumbent will discharge the duties of the office well. For all must know its heavy responsibilities, the dangers which will surround the new Governor of Utah, and that his only reward will be the eventual eulogy of a successful Administration. None but a man of great emphasis of character will take the place, and those who have the disposal of it will be exceedingly careful to entrust its duties in the hands of none but a gentleman of well tried and surely proved discretion, firmness, and character. It may be some time yet before the man for the occasion turns up, but he will be found in the end.

California Land Titles.—We understand that the large claim known as the "Swiss" Ranch claim was confirmed by the Board of Land Commissioners, and by the United States District Court. On application of the parties, and in order that the land might be saved from the public domain, a survey was ordered, but was resisted by settlers. At the instance of the surveying department the parties resisting were prosecuted under the act of Congress of the 29th May, 1830, providing for the protection of the "surveyors of the public lands of the United States, and to punish persons guilty of interrupting and hindering by force surveyors in the discharge of their duty." The grounds of the prosecution were held by the court to be untenable. On a reference of the matter by the surveyor general to the land department, it has been held by that department that the act of 3d March, 1853, confers power on the surveyor general to survey private land titles "after they shall have been confirmed;" that the confirmation thus referred to is the final confirmation by the court of last resort, to wit: the Supreme Court; that, under the circumstances, all parties concerned must await the final action of that court, but in the mean time the rights of claimants and justice is subserved by a reservation being ordered on the public lands by the surveyor general, of all lands that would fall under a claim of this class.

The Herald at its Old Tricks.—Yesterday morning the Herald (of New York) contained a cock and bull telegraphic story from Washington, giving the details of an intended reconstruction of the Cabinet, bringing Mr. Mason from Paris into the State Department, sending Mr. May on a mission to Europe, Messrs. Guthrie and Campbell retiring, transferring Mr. Dobbin to the Treasury Department, &c., &c. On the same occasion that journal's telegraphic correspondent pretends to foreshadow precisely the leading points in the President's message being prepared. Now, we have to say that a richer collection of lies never appeared in a single day in the Herald, which is saying much indeed for the sweeping character of the false statements promulgated therein for "Washington news," in the absence of real news in Washington within the reach of the writer. Not one of the twenty or thirty extravagant statements to which we refer above, is based on the slightest particle of truth.

Pension Vouchers.—It is held in the Treasury Department, that the certificate of the officiating magistrate to the truth of the copy of the pension certificate, as set out in the oath of identity prescribed by the instructions of September 1, 1848, is sufficient to authorize payment, if the other vouchers are correct. The original is not required, except the pension has expired. In the latter case the certificate must be surrendered on payment, whether made to the pensioner himself or to his attorney; and if there be several names in the pension certificate, given for a pension, to a date already passed, it must be surrendered when payment is made to the first applicant or applicants, though all the parties may not apply at that time. When the remainder apply, reference will be made in the oath of identity to the certificate already surrendered, stating the time and occasion of its surrender.

Naval Preparations.—Our distant cotemporary have been led into error by those Washington correspondents who report that there is just now the unusual activity displayed in the United States navy yards which betokens something more than ordinary preparations. Between this time and spring the Mediterranean, African coast, and West India (home) squadrons are all to return, and their places have all to be supplied as usual, the vessels now expected home, going into ordinary. The preparations referred to above are simply to get ready vessels to supply their places.

Consuls Cannot Celebrate Marriage.—In answering an official question propounded to him, the Attorney General has had occasion to decide that, under the law, consuls of the United States, in Europe, have no lawful power to celebrate marriage, either between citizens of the United States or foreigners. It will be recollected that United States consuls in Germany particularly, have been in the habit of celebrating marriage between parties about to emigrate to the United States. This decision, we take it for granted, has reference to some such case.

The New Custom-houses and Marine Hospitals.—We understand that the Secretary of the Treasury has now before him nearly all the reports of the various local boards of commissioners informed with the duty of obtaining for him the information necessary to enable him properly to locate the various new custom-houses and marine hospitals ordered by Congress at its last session. So, final decisions upon nearly all of them may be expected at an early day.

The United States Naval Steamer Princeton.—The Navy Department are said to have very gratifying accounts, indeed, of the performance of the machinery of this ship since the last repairs were put upon her. She has just returned to Pensacola, from Havana, and these accounts came in the shape of a report made since her return. The Princeton will continue to do duty as a ship of the Home Squadron.

A Clerical Appointment.—Mr. John Gilman, of N. C., has been appointed to fill the 2d class ($1,400 per annum) clerkship in the Navy Department, made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Grier, which we published a day or two since.

A Light-House Keeper Appointed.—Jacob P. Waggoner has been appointed keeper of the light-house at Sunken Rock, N. Y., at $350 per annum, vice David Walton, removed.

The Current Operations of the Treasury Department.—On yesterday, the 21st of Nov., there were of Treasury Warrants entered on the books of the Department—

For the redemption of stock.....	$39,487 03
For paying other Treasury debts.....	29,485 72
For the Customs.....	11,711 46
For covering into the Treasury from Lands.....	801,269 37
For the War Department.....	109,647 06
For repaying in the War Department.....	2,688 27
For the Navy Department.....	27,562 00
For the Interior Department.....	31,206 13

PERSONAL.
The Richmond Enquirer boasts that McCormick, the inventor of the reaping machine, was born in Virginia.

.... A Bangor, Me., paper says Mr. Gardner, Governor elect of Massachusetts is a junior partner in the firm of Denny, Rice & Gardner, who are in the wholesale dry goods business on Kilby street, and his nomination and election have been a fortune to the concern, their store having become the head-quarters for all the Know Nothing merchants in New England who buy their goods there.

Simon Brown, the Lieut. Governor elect, was a lawyer, but he left the profession many years ago, and edits the New England Farmer. He married a sister of Hon. B. B. French, formerly Clerk of the House of Representatives and now a resident of Washington, where he holds office. He was formerly a Democrat, but, like most Washington politicians, "none to hurt." He is a thoroughly educated and a well read man, but his tastes leading him to the quiet of a rural rather than a political life, he has never exerted much influence.

.... A Justice of the Peace named Cogan, was on Monday arrested in Newark, New Jersey, on a charge of inciting to riot. He was held to bail in $1,000.

.... An abolition print says of Mr. Richardson, although he put the Nebraska bill through the House, is in many respects a generous and gallant fellow. We remember having heard an anecdote of him, recurring to the time when he was prosecuting attorney in one of the courts at Illinois. A wealthy casual had been indicted for a trifling offense, and before the case came to trial the offender came into Mr. Richardson's office, and laying on the table a $50 bill, said, "I reckon, 'quire, that little indictment had better be not-pross'd." "I got up," says Richardson, "and thrust the $50 bill back to him with one hand, and took him by the collar with the other, and put him down the stairs full as quick as he came up. I was glad I did it so quick," he added, humorously, "for I was short about that time and the $50 bill looked mighty good."

.... William Milford, Esq., died at Cleveland, Ohio, on Thursday, the 16th. He was collector of the customs at that port during the administration of President Tyler, and subsequently proprietor of the American Hotel in that city.

.... The Tribune, of last evening, says: Gov. Seymour's friends are now overhauling the records of the election in the several counties in search of votes for "H. Seymour" and otherwise presumably for Horatio Seymour, though not correctly written or printed. We understand that so far the defective ballots discovered sum up—Seymour, 240; Clark 90.

Know Nothing National Convention.
CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 19.

Editors of the Star:
The Know Nothings are here, at the Burnet House, where I lodge, in potential numbers. Among them I see Ullmann, of New York; Conrad, of Philadelphia; Jerome, of Baltimore; Segar, of Va.; Rayner, of N. C.; Garrett Davis, of Ky., &c., &c.

Humphrey Marshall, Tom Corwin, and Chase are here, but not of them; though Humphrey would like to get the nomination for the Vice Presidency. I am of opinion that the Whigs have got the control of the convention, and will use it to drive out the Democratic party.

Garret Davis looks, already, as if he felt upon his shoulders the weight of the Presidential mantle.

THE PANORAMA.—The Baltimore papers state that twenty thousand persons visited the panorama of New York city while it was on exhibition there. The exhibitions of it will commence here, at Odd Fellows' Hall, on next Tuesday evening.

THE BOSTON REPRESENTATIVES.—A correspondent of the Post gives the following list of the professions of the representatives elect from the city:

"Doctors, 5; printers, 4; tailors, 3; masons, 3; carpenters, 2; clerks, 3; marketmen, 2; day laborers, 2; pavers, 1; sea captain, 1; corn merchant, 1; oil dealer, 1; ship chandler, 1; melon manufacturer, 1; silversmith, 1; Methodist minister, 1; fish dealer, 1; pile driver, 1; sausage dealer, 1; attorney, 1; welder, 1; glider, 1; coffin maker, 1; tavern keeper, 1; painter, 1; K. N.' in business, 3."

Father Brady's Remembrance of his Church.
(From the Hartford Times, Nov. 20.)

Two or three years ago Father Brady had his life insured in the Hartford Life Insurance Co. for $5,000. He so arranged it that the whole sum, in case of his death, should be paid over and held in trust for the benefit of an asylum to accommodate the helpless orphans of his church. Last winter he became dissatisfied about the charge of interest on his guarantee notes, the policy being upon the mutual plan, and did not pay the premium. The policy, of course, could not hold unless the annual premium was paid. But the transaction shows that Mr. Brady intended to provide for the orphan of his church member. It is only another instance of his entire and hearty devotedness to the welfare of his church.

The Boston Post says: "Rev. Mr. Brady, deceased, of Hartford, was for some years connected with the cathedral of the Holy Cross in this city. Rev. Mr. O'Brien yesterday made honorable mention of his long and faithful services in the ministry, and gave notice that there would be a mass for the repose of his soul during the week, and at the same time exhorted the clergy who had received such spiritual instruction from him to offer up a prayer in his behalf."

The closing of the New York Canals is officially announced to take place on the 5th of December. The season is described by the Rochester Union as having been a dull one for all connected with the navigation of the Canals.

SHOW AT FREDERICKSBURG, VA.—The Herald states that the first snow of the season fell in Fredericksburg early on Wednesday morning.

BALTIMORE CORRESPONDENCE.
The Know Nothing Council—The Banks—Distinguishing Arrival—Amicable Adjustment—Hard Times.

BALTIMORE, November 21, P. M.

I learn from sources entitled to credit, that the National Know Nothing council or convention, now assembled at Cincinnati, Ohio, has made no selection of a candidate for the next Presidency, nor even recommended such a step. That convention is not empowered to act with reference to such matters; so says my informant, who, I have reason to believe, knows it. It is simply a national meeting to regulate affairs pertaining to the order. The question whether or not to admit American or native born Catholics into the order, will probably absorb much attention, be fully discussed, and decided upon.

I learn that the reason why most of our banks, or have been, obliged to abridge their discounts, is owing to the fact of their having been called upon by many of the country banks, who had deposited largely with them. The monetary pressure coming on rather suddenly, and the deposits here referred to, not being immediately available, a system of restriction became indispensable, hence regular customers—men who had been depending on those institutions for almost daily discounts, could not be accommodated as heretofore.

"Self-protection is the first law of nature," and the banks having power to put this maxim into practice, looked out for number one. The consequence therefore is, a derangement of trade, an interruption of business, and an unusually stringent money market.

I have sometimes thought that banks, all things considered, were useless corporations and institutions, whose benefits are by no means universal. In times of financial ease, when money is abundant and very few actually want it, they go a begging to lend. Speculators, hazardous and venturesome merchants, get large discounts and enter extravagantly into trade. One loan creates the need for another, and anon, until rapid borrower becomes a pet. He must either go ahead, and run the hazard of the die, or stop short and compromise. By this means a favored few are made, as it were pensioners, and the banks are obliged to sustain them, to the discomfiture of really substantial and prudent men, who would only call for bank facilities legitimately in time of real need. Thus, when money becomes tight, they are told, upon offering good paper, that rigid and prudent account requires that the banks should curtail, and hence, those who really deserve relief are refused, because, forsooth, a certain class of wild, worthless speculators must be sustained. So long as our banks pursue this course, they can neither meet the ends for which they were established, nor retain public confidence. I have always had my doubts whether a merchant, who did business so as to be independent of banks, might not be in the end, what is the use of a friend if he do not come to the relief in time of need? The present banking system is precisely the reverse of this. When a poor sufferer is in distress they inhumanly shy off.

Mayor Hinks has signified his intention to call an extra session of the City Council very soon. There are some important questions connected with railroad and other matters demanding attention.

I have the extreme pleasure of announcing the return from Germany of our distinguished citizen, Brigadier General Scherff, Consul to Mannheim. This is the gentleman, who, about a year or eighteen months ago, made the celebrated speech from the top of a large beer barrel, to his many friends, on the occasion of his departure, as a high official functionary. I learn that another complimentary entertainment is to be gotten up as a mark of respect and gratitude for the masterly manner in which he discharged the difficult duties of his intricate and responsible office. I may probably attend and give you a sketch of his remarks.

Day after to-morrow, 23d inst., is to be observed in our city and State as a day of thanksgiving. All secular business will, no doubt, be suspended. We have, unquestionably, great cause to thank the giver of good for his manifold blessings. Good dinners will, I hope, crown every board. The turkeys are in fearful anticipations and have little cause for rejoicing in the approach of such festivals. The only class of people who will not be free from duty is the telegraph operators of the magnetic line. Because the holiday is universal they are obliged to pick away as usual.

The difficulty which Col. C. Egerton had with Jesse Murphy, in which the latter was badly out, I learn has been amicably adjusted.

Our theatrical managers complain of hard times. Their audiences are generally slim and unpaying.

The recent failure or business suspension of our much esteemed merchant, David Stewart & Sons, has caused much regret. The closing of this week is expected to be a hard test upon several others, but I hope they may get through.

Business of every description remains very dull. Persons are not much disposed to operate, except for cash or its equivalent. Rents and real estate are depreciating in value, and stocks continue to recede. The prospect is certainly dreary. Mechanics are badly thrown out of employment.

Thanksgiving Day.—Rev. B. Sutherland, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, 4 1/2 street, may be expected to deliver a discourse in this church on Thursday morning, the 23d inst., at 11 o'clock, on "the mutual relation of church and State, and their legitimate functions in the reformation of the world."

The Scott Guards have the pleasure of announcing that their first Ball will take place on Wednesday, the 24th inst., at 11 o'clock. Particulars in future advertisement.

TUSCARORA No. 5, Improved Order of Red Men, announce to the Brothers of the Order and the public in general that they will give a Ball on THURSDAY EVENING, 7th of December, at Odd Fellows' Hall, Navy Yard. Particulars in a future advertisement.

KNIGHT TEMPLARS.—A social Assembly of Washington Commandment No. 1 will be held at the Asylum, Masonic Hall, on WEDNESDAY EVENING, Nov. 22d, at 6 o'clock, on important and interesting business. All members are invited to attend. WM. J. RHES, Recorder.

THURSDAY, THE 23d INSTANT, HAVING been set apart as a day of thanksgiving, our Bank House will be closed. Persons who may have notes for cash on that day are requested to attend to them the day previous.

CHUBB BROTHERS.
21st St. (Intel & Union It.)

FOR SALE IN SUMS TO SUIT.—$3,000 Corporate stock of Washington City—interest payable quarterly. H. C. STEWART & CO., Corner H and Twelfth sts.

FOR STALL, GEORGETOWN.—FIFTY head of fine horses will be added to the stall in the course of three weeks. B. FORREST

VERY SUPERIOR MELODEON just received and for sale by JNO. F. ELLIS, Pa. avenue, between 9th and 10th sts.

NOTICE.—THE SUBSCRIBER RESPECTFULLY informs his customers that, as the 23d instant has been set apart as Thanksgiving Day, his Restaurant will be open till 12 o'clock, and the business of his regular boarders, and that the business of the Bar room will be entirely stopped on the following day, the 24th inst.

LAST—A RED BUFFALO COW, with white plaes on her thighs, a white belly and tail, and a white star on her forehead. She is gone in the night. The tender will be rewarded by giving such information as will lead to her recovery. JOHN McNAMARA, Corner of North Capitol and G streets.

THE LIBERTY CLUB.
THE LIBERTY CLUB announces with pleasure to their friends and the citizens of Washington and vicinity that their First Annual Ball will be given on WEDNESDAY, December 30, 1854, at Temperance Hall. Particulars are in a future advertisement.

LAST—A RED BUFFALO COW, with white plaes on her thighs, a white belly and tail, and a white star on her forehead. She is gone in the night. The tender will be rewarded by giving such information as will lead to her recovery. JOHN McNAMARA, Corner of North Capitol and G streets.

IMMENSE ASSORTMENT of new styles of Fancy Goods, Paper, Macho work, pearl and silver ornaments, &c., just opened and for sale low. JNO. F. ELLIS, Pa. avenue, between 9th and 10th sts.

THE LIBERTY CLUB.
THE LIBERTY CLUB announces with pleasure to their friends and the citizens of Washington and vicinity that their First Annual Ball will be given on WEDNESDAY, December 30, 1854, at Temperance Hall. Particulars are in a future advertisement.

LAST—A RED BUFFALO COW, with white plaes on her thighs, a white belly and tail, and a white star on her forehead. She is gone in the night. The tender will be rewarded by giving such information as will lead to her recovery. JOHN McNAMARA, Corner of North Capitol and G streets.

IMMENSE ASSORTMENT of new styles of Fancy Goods, Paper, Macho work, pearl and silver ornaments, &c., just opened and for sale low. JNO. F. ELLIS, Pa. avenue, between 9th and 10th sts.

NATIONAL THEATRE.
PRICES OF ADMISSION.
Dress Circle and Parquet.....$5 cts
Gentlemen without Ladies.....$7 1/2
Second and Third tiers of Boxes.....25 "

KUNKEL'S NIGHTINGALE OPERA TROUPE.
SPLENDID SUCCESS,
NOVELTY,
VARIETY, and REFINEMENT.
IMMENSE CONCOURSES
OF
BEAUTY, CHIVALRY,
YOUTH, and FASHION.

This (Wednesday) Evening, Nov. 22, PROGRAMME—PART I.
T. L. Floyd in his celebrated female impersonation

Grand Overture.....Hermann. Ahrend & Co
Grand Opera Chorus (Branco).....Nightingales
Solo from From Home.....Geo. Knell
Mi Ti Ti Ti.....W. P. Lehr
My Vale.....Mast J. Adams
Come go with me my lovely Dinah.....J. K. Search
Oh, Silver Shining Moon.....P. Berger
Dance from the Opera.....Harry Lehr
Dance from the Opera.....Geo. Kunkel & H. Lehr

Accordeon Solo (with variation).....Levi Brown
Solo from the Opera.....T. L. Floyd and Joe Brown
Solo from the Opera.....W. P. Lehr
"Columbia, the Land of my Hopes".....Mast Adams
Banjo Duet (from Chimo).....L. Brown & H. Lehr
Wuesten's Dance.....T. L. Floyd & Joe Brown
Alma Marcour.....Mast J. Adams
Violin Duet (Alma Marcour).....Mast J. Adams

Conducted by the Jullien, by H. Lehr.
Gwine Round the Horn.....Joe Brown
Violoncello Solo.....T. Ahrend

The performance to conclude with a fight between a

RUSSIAN AND AN ALKIE.
OR, A SEBASTOPOL SKIRMISH.
Russia.....Joe Brown
Alkie.....Harry Lehr

TO-MORROW (THANKSGIVING) NIGHT,
The Great Bill of the Season.

In active preparation, the beautiful Operatic Ballet of
LA BAYADERE,
Adapted and arranged especially for this Troupe.

Doors open at 6 1/2, performance to commence at 7 1/2 o'clock.
JNO. T. FORB, Agent.
Nov 22-21

A FINE HORSE FOR SALE.—A FINE YOUNG sorrel horse, with a good body and new harness or so. The horse is suitable for a physician, and will stand anywhere, and does well under the saddle. He can be seen at Wagon's stable, Maryland avenue, near the Capitol.
Nov 22-31

NEW NOVEL, FRED VERNON. Request to Wagon's stable, Maryland avenue, near the Capitol.
Nov 22-31

THE GREAT BILL OF THE SEASON.
In active preparation, the beautiful Operatic Ballet of
LA BAYADERE,
Adapted and arranged especially for this Troupe.

Doors open at 6 1/2, performance to commence at 7 1/2 o'clock.
JNO. T. FORB, Agent.
Nov 22-21

A FINE HORSE FOR SALE.—A FINE YOUNG sorrel horse, with a good body and new harness or so. The horse is suitable for a physician, and will stand anywhere, and does well under the saddle. He can be seen at Wagon's stable, Maryland avenue, near the Capitol.
Nov 22-31

NEW NOVEL, FRED VERNON. Request to Wagon's stable, Maryland avenue, near the Capitol.
Nov 22-31

THE GREAT BILL OF THE SEASON.
In active preparation, the beautiful Operatic Ballet of
LA BAYADERE,
Adapted and arranged especially for this Troupe.

Doors open at 6 1/2, performance to commence at 7 1/2 o'clock.
JNO. T. FORB, Agent.
Nov 22-21

A FINE HORSE FOR SALE.—A FINE YOUNG sorrel horse, with a good body and new harness or so. The horse is suitable for a physician, and will stand anywhere, and does well under the saddle. He can be seen at Wagon's stable, Maryland avenue, near the Capitol.
Nov 22-31

NEW NOVEL, FRED VERNON. Request to Wagon's stable, Maryland avenue, near the Capitol.
Nov 22-31

THE GREAT BILL OF THE SEASON.
In active preparation, the beautiful Operatic Ballet of
LA BAYADERE,
Adapted and arranged especially for this Troupe.

Doors open at 6 1/2, performance to commence at 7 1/2 o'clock.
JNO. T. FORB, Agent.
Nov 22-21

A FINE HORSE FOR SALE.—A FINE YOUNG sorrel horse, with a good body and new harness or so. The horse is suitable for a physician, and will stand anywhere, and does well under the saddle. He can be seen at Wagon's stable, Maryland avenue, near the Capitol.
Nov 22-31

NEW NOVEL, FRED VERNON. Request to Wagon's stable, Maryland avenue, near the Capitol.
Nov 22-31

THE GREAT BILL OF THE SEASON.
In active preparation, the beautiful Operatic Ballet of
LA BAYADERE,
Adapted and arranged especially for this Troupe.

Doors open at 6 1/2, performance to commence at 7 1/2 o'clock.
JNO. T. FORB, Agent.
Nov 22-21

A FINE HORSE FOR SALE.—A FINE YOUNG sorrel horse, with a good body and new harness or so. The horse is suitable for a physician, and will stand anywhere, and does well under the saddle. He can be seen at Wagon's stable, Maryland avenue, near the Capitol.
Nov 22-31

NEW NOVEL, FRED VERNON. Request to Wagon's stable, Maryland avenue, near the Capitol.
Nov 22-31

THE GREAT BILL OF THE SEASON.
In active preparation, the beautiful Operatic Ballet of
LA BAYADERE,
Adapted and arranged especially for this Troupe.

Doors open at 6 1/2, performance to commence at 7 1/2 o'clock.
JNO. T. FORB, Agent.
Nov 22-21

A FINE HORSE FOR SALE.—A FINE YOUNG sorrel horse, with a good body and new harness or so. The horse is suitable for a physician, and will stand anywhere, and does well under the saddle. He can be seen at Wagon's stable, Maryland avenue, near the Capitol.
Nov 22-31

NEW NOVEL, FRED VERNON. Request to Wagon's stable, Maryland avenue, near the Capitol.
Nov 22-31

THE GREAT BILL OF THE SEASON.
In active preparation, the beautiful Operatic Ballet of
LA BAYADERE,
Adapted and arranged especially for this Troupe.

Doors open at 6 1/2, performance to commence at 7 1/2 o'clock.
JNO. T. FORB, Agent.
Nov 22-21

A FINE HORSE FOR SALE.—A FINE YOUNG sorrel horse, with a good body and new harness or so. The horse is suitable for a physician, and will stand anywhere, and does well under the saddle. He can be seen at Wagon's stable, Maryland avenue, near the Capitol.
Nov 22-31

NEW NOVEL, FRED VERNON. Request to Wagon's stable, Maryland avenue, near the Capitol.
Nov 22-31

AMUSEMENT.
IRON HALL.
PARKOR'S SOUTHERN OPERA TROUPE.
WOULD respectfully announce to the ladies and gentlemen of Washington that they will remain in this city three nights longer for the purpose of presenting to the Fair Company that all the numbers of the troupe, a magnificent silver TRUMPET, worth one hundred dollars, for the three nights of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The three nights will be set apart for the purpose of re-seeing the troupe of the troupe, as the troupe is so large, and so many, that more than 800 persons, therefore it would be advisable for persons to attend on those nights.

The troupe is the most beautiful piece of workmanship ever seen in this city. It can be seen in the store window of Mr. Galt, on Pa. avenue, at the Washington Quatre-Club and Mr. Robert Handy will appear each evening.

nov 20-21 JNO. F. SMITH, Agent.

BULLARD'S PANORAMA.
takes the spectator over SIX MILES through the streets of NEW YORK CITY, faithfully showing the business, bustle and confusion of city life. He has a view of more than SEVEN HUNDRED HORSES and CARRIAGES, and upwards of

TEN THOUSAND OF ITS PEOPLE!
PROCESSIONS, MILITARY CORPUS, BANDS OF MUSIC, SHIPPING, STEAMBOATS, &c. All the numbers of the troupe, a magnificent silver TRUMPET, worth one hundred dollars, for the three nights of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The three nights will be set apart for the purpose of re-seeing the troupe of the troupe, as the troupe is so large, and so many, that more than 800 persons, therefore it would be advisable for persons to attend on those nights.

The troupe is the most beautiful piece of workmanship ever seen in this city. It can be seen in the store window of Mr. Galt, on Pa. avenue, at the Washington Quatre-Club and Mr. Robert Handy will appear each evening.

nov 20-21 JNO. F. SMITH, Agent.

ODD FELLOWS' HALL, 111A STREET.
The afternoon Exhibitions commence at 3 o'clock the average at 7 1/2 o'clock, and every evening until Dec. 9, inclusive, also on Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday afternoons of each week.

The afternoon Exhibitions commence at 3 o'clock the average at 7 1/2 o'clock, and every evening until Dec. 9, inclusive, also on Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday afternoons of each week.

Admission 35 cents. Children half price. Families and Parties 5 persons.....$1 00
nov 18-21

GIANT'S LEVEES AT JACKSON HALL.
THE Manager respectfully announces to the ladies and gentlemen of Washington that they will remain in this city three nights longer for the purpose of presenting to the Fair Company that all the numbers of the troupe, a magnificent silver TRUMPET, worth one hundred dollars, for the three nights of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The three nights will be set apart for the purpose of re-seeing the troupe of the troupe, as the troupe is so large, and so many, that more than 800 persons, therefore it would be advisable for persons to attend on those nights.

The troupe is the most beautiful piece of workmanship ever seen in this city. It can be seen in the store window of Mr. Galt, on Pa. avenue, at the Washington Quatre-Club and Mr. Robert Handy will appear each evening.

nov 20-21 JNO. F. SMITH, Agent.

GIANT'S LEVEES AT JACKSON HALL.
THE Manager respectfully announces to the ladies and gentlemen of Washington that they will remain in this city three nights longer for the purpose of presenting to the Fair Company that all the numbers of the troupe, a magnificent silver TRUMPET, worth one hundred dollars, for the three nights of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The three nights will be set apart for the purpose of re-seeing the troupe of the troupe, as the troupe is so large, and so many, that more than 800 persons, therefore it would be advisable for persons to attend on those nights.

The troupe is the most beautiful piece of workmanship ever seen in this city. It can be seen in the store window of Mr. Galt, on Pa. avenue, at the Washington Quatre-Club and Mr. Robert Handy will appear each evening.

nov 20-21 JNO. F. SMITH, Agent.

GIANT'S LEVEES AT JACKSON HALL.
THE Manager respectfully announces to the ladies and gentlemen of Washington that they will remain